FACTS

WHAT DOES UMB FINANCIAL CORPORATION AND ITS SUBSIDIARIES (“UMB”) DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?
Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?
The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:
- Social Security number and income
- Account balances and payment history
- Credit history and transaction history

How?
All financial companies need to share customers’ personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers’ personal information, the reasons UMB chooses to share and whether you can limit this sharing.

What we do

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>How does UMB protect my personal information?</th>
<th>To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

| How does UMB collect my personal information? | We collect your personal information, for example, when you:
- Open an account or apply for a loan
- Use your credit or debit card or make deposits or withdrawals from your account
- Tell us about your investment or retirement portfolio
We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates or other companies. |

| Why can’t I limit all sharing? | Federal law gives you the right to limit only:
- Sharing for affiliates’ everyday business purposes – information about your creditworthiness
- Affiliates from using your information to market to you
- Sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you
State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law. |

| What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else? | Your choices will apply individually – unless you tell us otherwise. |
