2. The International Transaction Fee is a service fee for any debit or credit card transaction originating at an ATM or Point-of-Sale terminal outside The United States of America. Debit card transactions that originate outside the United States include, but are not limited to, purchases made while you are in the United States but are made with a merchant who processed the transaction in a foreign country or using a foreign currency. This service fee will be separately itemized on your periodic account statement.

3. Overdraft Charges apply to transactions created by check, draft, in-person withdrawals, or electronic payment transactions (but not debit card transactions) that, if paid, would cause the current balance of your account to be overdrawn by more than $5.00. Overdraft Charges are limited to four (4) per day.
